MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR

Subject: This Afternoon's IAC Meeting

Intelligence Publications

Discussions about General Irwin's suggestion on the political affairs in the intelligence publications have been held and the Standing Committee recommends that State Department produce a Weekly on Political Intelligence and Policy Background Information for use in the Services' SECRET publications. Policy matters therein will be labeled by the State Department that they are not to be changed or reworded if published.

Publicity re Intelligence

We think that this is NOT a subject for a National Security Council Intelligence Directive, but rather a matter which should be controlled at the source within each Department in accordance with its own security and press release regulations.

Transliteration

We would appreciate it if you would pass the word on to the linguists in the IAC Agencies that our linguists would like to discuss with them the problem of transliteration into English and Standardization of Spelling of Foreign Names in the Slavic, Far Eastern, Arabic, and several Minor Languages. We hope to arrive at a more uniform system to avoid confusion and help with the filing, indexing, etc.
